1.교과목 개요

This course is an introduction to modern Korean history through film. Students will analyze various representations of national history in Korean cinema divided into three major historical periods of Japanese Occupation and the Pacific War (1910-45), the Korean War (1950-53), and Postwar Development (1960s-90s).

* This syllabus is subject to change based on the needs of the class. Students are responsible for keeping up with the announcements made in class.

2. 강의목표

Students are expected to treat films as historiographies rather than as a means of entertainment. This course is interdisciplinary in design and is reading-, writing- and discussion-intensive. The course requires competency and/or willingness to read, write, and discuss critically about film and academic texts in English. Active and regular participation in the classroom discussions is essential.
