1.Course Outline

As a continuation of English practice for international studies 1, the second semester will be devoted to enhancing listening skills by using Tedtalk materials relevant to international studies.

2. Objectives

In this class, the focus will be given on enhancing listening skills by learning proper stress and pronunciation, and understanding expressions often encountered in public talks. Students will be given a chance to demomstrate their skills by both presenting and listening to student talks in class.

3. Teaching Method

Lecture, Listening and Comprehension Practice.
The instructor will introduce a talk each week and explain important listening points and expressions. Students will engage in listening practice as a class and in small groups. Particular attention will be paid to learning and practicing proper pronunciation, stress and essential English expressions often encountered in public presentations .

4. Evaluation Method

1. Attendance: 10%
* Missing one hour of class= one point (3 tardies = one absence),
* Students will work in small groups, so it is important to come to class during the first week to be assigned a group.
2. Midterms & Final: 30% each
3. Worksheet (15%) + Student Presentations (4 minutes): 30%
