Welcomes / Delegates from Dalian University of Technology Visit Poya School of Tunghai University

Ms. Wang Jue, Deputy Director of the International Office of Dalian University of Technology (DUT), led a delegation from its Panjin campus to Tunghai University (THU) on 17th July, 2013. Dr. Wu, Shiou-Chao, Vice Dean of Poya School, cordially welcomed the delegation on behalf of THU. The two sides shared ideas on general education and the collective Poya lifestyle underpinned by the core value of liberal arts education. During the meeting, Vice Dean Wu introduced the spirit of Poya School to the guests. The mission of Poya School is to maintain and manifest the spirit of THU's liberal arts education. Every program offered and every activity held at the School emphasizes the ethos of humanity, importance of life education, and character building to help individual students put into practice the principle of liberal arts education in their daily lives.

Deputy Director Wang appreciated the success and continuing progress of 'Liberal Arts Education' at THU and expressed her willingness to create more exchange opportunities between the two universities. This meeting successfully established a platform for both sides to generate abundant mutual benefits collaboratively in the future.

DUT was founded in 1949 and is located in the northeastern part of mainland China. It is one of the major universities under the leadership of the Ministry of Education of the PRC. DUT has long been devoted to innovation development and quality teaching, which has led it to take part in the "985 Project" and received substantial support.
